As Variety Crossing evolves and changes into a new existence, the next edition addresses transcription. Within any new beginning, elements of the whole begin to complement each other. In this edition of Variety Crossing, authors explore the idea of cultural distinction while embracing a common culture. Be it a language, a culture, an attitude or tradition, transcription is capturing an individual experience and creating their own unique voice to relate to the world around them. This edition of Variety Crossing is looking to the contemporary vision of multiculturalism, remembering the past in order to create a new adapted future.
